

*To set out to do something even though it might be dangerous

*Left in a helpless or difficult position

*Having no people living there

*Throwing; sending forcefully upward

*On or to the shore from the water

*Holes or tunnels dug in the ground by small animals

*Acting on an inner feeling; doing without thinking